Williamson; girls' potato race, Rebecca Stewart; ladies' nail driving contest, Mrs. C. A. Millmore; girls' nail driving contest, Alice Currier.
The department was one of the most interesting features of the fair.
Ninety-seven school children entered 178 articles for exhibition. Every child won a cash prize. All articles showed that great interest had been taken. Special mention should be made of Claude Hodgden; potatoes grown by Earl Joslin; sofa pillow, Ida Richardson; squash, George Lawrence, and the exhibit of vegetables raised by Lloyd Willis. In the chicken contest which began February 1 and closed September 30, Belle Burdick won the $5 prize, Ray Young and Willard Baker were close seconds, winning $1 each. Some of the best exhibits are to be taken to the state contest at Rutland, October 26-29. The ball game between Concord and East Concord in the morning resulted in a score of 5 to 4 in favor of East Concord. A large number attended the dance in the evening.

The community was saddened Thursday morning when it was learned that F. J. Bedell had passed away Wednesday evening of heart failure.
Mr. Bedell had been in his usual health, working through the day, and was visiting with his family in his jovial manner, when a slight noise attracted their attention and he was found lying on the floor. He was found by his wife, Mrs. F. J. Bedell, at about 10:15 a. m., 1849, a son of Jacob and Mary Jane Joslin Bedell. On September 24, 1873, he was married to Ellen M. Baker and to them were born four children, Geo.
N. of Waterford, Harry M., Ward M. and Mary A. of this town. Mrs. Bedell died December 31, 1911, and February 18, 1913, Mr. Bedell was married to Mrs. Myra S. Woodbury who survives him. He is also survived by his four children, one grand child, Vivian Lewis, one sister, Mrs. Edwin Joslin, and several nieces and nephews. Mr.
Bedell was one of the most genial of men and had none but friends in the town where nearly his whole life was spent. The funeral was held from the home Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, Rev. A. M. Smith officiating.
A quartette of ladies' voices sang several appropriate selections. The bearers were George Whipple, W. C.
Pratt, A. J. Lyon and Marshall Joslin. The interment was in the family lot in the village cemetery.

The annual chicken pie supper of the L. B. Society will be held at the vestry of the M. E. church Tuesday evening, October 13.

At the sale held by the Wide Awake club Wednesday evening, September 29, the sum of $17.30 was made from the several tables. Russel Moyle held the ticket that drew the quilt, the receipts from which were $32.50. The final vote for the girls' free trip to Rutland was as follows: Ruth Crowell, 111; Ella Burbank, 108. Florestany killed September 29 when she was struck in the head by the three of an engine. She was walking on the track.

In Franklin county court last week the jury in the case of Stephen N. Frost vs. Lewis Fricel returned a verdict for the plaintiff to recover $500. Frost sued for $3,000 for the loss of an ear which he claimed Fricel chewed off.

The annual meeting of the Vermont State Grange will be held in Burlington December 14-16.

Mr. and Mrs. Max L. Powell entertained 30 members and officers of the 1915 Vermont Senate and their ladies at the Hotel Vermont, Burlington on Wednesday. The decorations were in the state colors, green and gold, with a touch of the senatorial purple. The guests from this part of the state included F. M. Page and son of Groton and O. L. Martin and wife of Plainfield.

John Green, the Bennington boy who was hit in the face with a charge of peas shot by the angry owner of a grape vine, will lose the sight of both eyes. The owner claims he was stealing grapes.

Seth C. Rich of Northfield has been given the sum of $10,000 for for $10,000 for the alienation of his wife's affections. The suit is the second to grow out of an automobile accident last August in which Mrs.
Rich was killed while riding with Cross in his automobile.

Walter Crocker, the Bennington
he was stealing grapes.

The Magazine clubs held their annual meetings the past week. Club No. 1 voted for the following magazines for the coming year: The World's Work, Technical World, Red Book, Blue Book, Good Housekeeping, Ladies' Home Journal, Hearst's, Harwearing the traditional pine sprig on his coat. The parade started at 10 o'clock and Vermont comrades fell into their place in line as they marched on. The parade was over at 9:30 on Second street. It was an hour later when the Vermonters passed the president on the reviewing stand, but not a Green Mountain boy had fallen out.

The department carried in the parade a new silk flag presented by the Vermont Ladies Aid society. The flag was the last of the week.
